Chris' Pick

Mini Tagua Critters (pg 4)

Washington Rodriguez

I love promoting this ivory substitute. Our new 'carving in basket' series brings basket weavers and tagua carvers together to create an ever growing selection of affordable tagua collectibles.

Scarlette's Pick

Camera Strap (pg 5)

Miguel Angel Ramos

I love the retro look and quality of these camera straps. Miguel Angel always does great work!

Marie's Pick

Zoe Hat (pg 12)

Carlos Rojas

I like the Zoe hat for its versatility. You can wear it out on a date or just going to your favorite fair trade store to shop.

Jamie's Pick

Cozy Scarf (pg 13)

Hector Lema Vega

I can't get enough of these scarves. In fact, I own a ton of blankets at home made from the same material! Nothing beats the softness and warmth of the brushed acrylic fabric from Hector.

Jia's Pick

Dandy Pals (pg 20)

Maldonado Family

I had the fortunate opportunity to work closely with the Maldonado's in developing and designing this product. The time and care the Maldonado's take with each and every piece is remarkable and I adore our collab!

Vivi's Pick

Giraffe in Pocket Sweater (pg 21)

Daniel Ruiz

My favorite animal is the giraffe. I love the contrast of the yellow and blue. It is handmade from artisans in my home country, so has a lot of sentimental value.

WHAT IS TAGUA?

Also known as vegetable ivory, tagua is a nut that grows on a species of palm tree native to Ecuador. Each tagua nut is sun-dried for 4-6 months before being carved, polished and sometimes dyed.

Tagua #23881

The styles and colors shown here are representative of a large, diverse collection of awesomeness. If you see something in particular that you like, let us know and we'll do our best to accommodate your request. Otherwise, sit back, relax, and prepare yourself for a hand-selected variety of stylish earrings! Made in Ecuador.

TAGUA HELPS...

DISCOURAGE POACHING

It provides an alternative to ivory so the slaughter of elephants is reduced.

CREATE JOBS

The demand of hand crafted tagua provides much needed jobs for farmers and artisans.

PREVENT DEFORESTATION

Tagua products encourage the growth and maintenance of the tagua palm which encourages reforestation.

Jane #28284 - Variety of shapes and colors available.

Vivid #21584 - Variety of shapes and colors available.

Enter a world of elemental colors, textures and materials...

The pieces included in our Elementality line range from gorgeous semi-precious stones in simple settings to intricate shapes teased out of alpaca silver wire. Let this piece of fair trade jewelry be an elemental part of your everyday style!

Alpaca silver is a durable metal alloy made with copper, zinc, and nickel that imitates silver but doesn't tarnish as easily. The semi-precious stones used are mined in Perú and Brazil. Made in Perú.

Simple Stone #21881 - Variety of shapes and colors available.

Jungle #22980 - Variety of shapes and colors available.

Coco Form #24481 - Variety of shapes and colors available.

Gourd Diversity #29982 - Variety of shapes and colors available.

Sustainable & Organic!

The materials used in our Jungle Jewelry are sustainably harvested in the South American countryside by fair trade artisans. All of our bold, beautiful Jungle Jewelry is assembled by hand. Each purchase of Jungle Jewelry provides incentive to South American farmers to protect their land and forests. Made in Ecuador and Perú.

Live Lightly!

The name of our Liviana line comes from the Spanish word for "lightweight". Made with anodized aluminum, this piece of jewelry is super lightweight, hypo allergenic and won't tarnish. Each piece is shaped and twisted by hand by fun-loving, fair trade artisans in Perú.

The styles and colors shown here are representative of a large, diverse collection of awesomeness. If you see something in particular that you like, let us know and we'll do our best to accommodate your request. Otherwise, sit back, relax, and prepare yourself for a hand-selected variety of stylish earrings!
